DETAILED ACTION

Terminal Disclaimer

1. The terminal disclaimer filed on October 25, 2006 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of 6,676,659 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded, and it overcomes the double patenting rejection in the Office action of July 26, 2006.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 15-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. With respect to base claim 15: It is not certain how a rotatable coupling, a part of the catheter handle, is "between said catheter handle and a catheter" (i.e., how is the catheter handle located between itself and a catheter?). Also, it is not certain whether the catheter handle includes a catheter and a device extending through a lumen of the catheter and affixed to a distal end of the catheter (a handle clamping member is only said to be "configured to engage" the device, where the device and catheter are not positively recited to be a structural part of the invention). Also with respect to claim 16, "the connection" lacks antecedent basis.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 7, 8, and 10-12 allowed.

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: None of the prior art of record, alone or in combination, discloses a method of cutting tissue in a body passage, where the method includes, inter alia, selecting a catheter with first and second lumens, actuating an electrosurgical cutting wire, and orientating the electrosurgical cutting wire by rotating a handle relative to a proximal end of the catheter, such that the electrosurgical cutting wire also rotationally orientates a distal portion of the catheter.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Response to Amendment

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to the rejection of claims 15-19 based on 35 USC 112 have been considered but are not persuasive: See the restated ground(s) of rejection above. With respect to the rejection of claims 15-19 based on the Weaver reference: Weaver does not disclose an apparatus including, inter alia, a handle that when rotated, causes rotation of a proximal end of a device affixed to a catheter, where rotation of the device causes rotational orientation of the distal end of the catheter. These claims may be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims and if a catheter handle, a catheter, and a device are positively recited as structural parts of the invention.

With respect to the double patenting rejection: See the first paragraph above.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Howell et al. (6,533,782) teach a device with a cutting wire.

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
